

27th October 04

Dear Nick

A very belated thank you to you and all your Team for such an excellent day on my birthday.

You and Martini worked so hard in preparing and all the time during the day, linking up all the various activities.

Without exception I think everyone had a really great time and lots of laughs. I think tanks will be top of the list on most peoples Christmas list !!